Keep me informed of all the latest OMM News (we will not share your contact details with any third parties)

Thank you for deciding to recycle your pre-loved products through our RE:OMM project. We'll fix up what we can and donate it to charities and groups who are in need of outdoor kit.

If the product has passed its lifespan, we will work with our partners to recycle it responsibly.

We will never sell them on or send to landfill.

Once we receive your items for recycling, we will issue a 15% discount code to the email address above.

This can be used across our website against all full price products
(excl. event entries, sale & refurbished products)
